GIL eBulletin

A monthly eBulletin from the Global Community of Growth, Innovation and Leadership

February 2010 Vol 3 Issue 2

There's no cookie cutter approach to developing a successful growth strategy. The best way to gain insight and transfer ideas is by listening to each other's knowledge and fresh perspectives.

It's all part of the quest for Growth, Innovation and Leadership, and we want to hear about yours!

In our new "GIL Bite" section, we ask YOU, the growth thought leaders in our Global GIL Community, to share and inspire us.

In 250 words or less, send us any idea, view or perspective relating to Growth, Innovation and Leadership. Each month, we will feature a new bite; the thinkers behind the most creative entries will be invited to present their ideas live at an upcoming GIL event.

Don't wait! E-mail your submission to brian.denker@frost.com
