

Srinivasa Addepalli

*Senior Vice President, Corporate Strategy
Tata Communications*

As Head of Global Strategy and Corporate Communications, Srinivasa Addepalli is responsible for strategy formulation and execution at Tata Communications, a leading global communications solutions provider. He manages all new strategic initiatives at Tata Communications, including growth plans, entry into new markets and mergers & acquisitions. He is also responsible for external communication, including media relations.

He is a Director on the Boards of Tata Communications' subsidiaries in the Retail Broadband and Transformation Services businesses.

Mr. Addepalli has considerable experience in developing strategies and business plans, particularly in the Indian telecom sector, both wireless and broadband. His previous experience includes a business consulting stint with the Tata Strategic Management Group (TSMG), focusing on the telecom and media industries. Subsequently, Mr. Addepalli joined the Tata Group Chairman's Office, with the responsibility for coordinating the various telecom activities within the Tata Group

Mr. Addepalli holds a Masters in Business Administration from the Indian Institute of Management (IIM), Ahmedabad, Asia's No. 1 business school. Earlier, he graduated with distinction in Electronics Engineering from the National Institute of Technology, Surat.