Frost & Sullivan's 50th Anniversary

Today there are about 7000 companies that make up the information and consulting industry. Out of these 7000 companies, 700 have revenues greater than $10 million, and only 100 have revenues greater than $100 million.

One start-up in one million start-ups around the world exceed $100 million and lasts for 50 years.

The Frost & Sullivan story is that one in a million.
